DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This is the full journey level class within the Social Services Counselor series. Employees within this class are distinguished from the Social Services Counselor I+ by the performance of the full range of duties as assigned, which may include the possession of a Mental Health Professional Certificate by the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners. Employees in this class may also provide guidance/supervision over crisis intervention volunteers, Master level interns, school counselors, and/or psychotherapeutic and educational group facilitators. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise, and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies of the work unit. Positions in this class are flexibly staffed and are normally filled by advancement from the lower class of Social Services Counselor I+, or, when filled from the outside, require three years of prior counseling experience, preferably in a public agency, and may require possession of a Mental Health Professional Certificate by the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners. Appointment to the higher class may require that the employee possess a Mental Health Professional Certificate by the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners and be performing the full range of journey level duties assigned to the class.

REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS

Receives direction from Social Services Supervisor or other management staff.

May exercise functional and technical supervision over less experienced staff, Master level interns, school counselors, volunteers, and group facilitators.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Experience:	Three years of experience providing counseling services in area appropriate to position's assignment. Bilingual preferred.
Education:	Equivalent to a Master's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in psychology, social work, educational psychology or a degree related to the core functions of this position.

License / Certification:	Possession of a Mental Health Professional Certificate by the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners is required for Care 7 and preferred for Community Supervision.
